

522 & 523

As a result of the events of 522 & 523, the Ostrogothic possessions in Gaul reached their greatest territorial extension.

The last acquisitions were then lost around 530 when A MALASUIN THA renounced the territory north of the DURANCE in the name of her son AT HALARIC

522

Duncan: Cal

Two sons of Baethus were appointed to the Consulship by King Theodoric

July 11, 522

Chromographs
The Armanian Era

C 522

The churches of the east & west were split over many issues, theological as well as personal. Controversy over the nature of Christ. Then came the fight Constantinople's claim for primacy.

The men who occupied the throne of St. Peter, such as the mighty Pope GELASIUS, denied the emperor's right to be the final authority in question of faith. Only on the advice of Young Justinian did his

Under the Emperor Justin, such reconciliation with Rome, its senatorial nobility, and the Papacy. Until then the majority of the Catholic leadership of Italy was to be found in Ravenna's camp. The tolerance of the Arian Gothic King - Theodoric - was preferred to the caeseropapist claims of Constantinople